

Kentucky Corps of Advocates for Veterans (KCAV)

The Kentucky Corps of Advocates for Veterans (KCAV) provides legal services to veterans who have served their country and now need their community's help to achieve a stable and prosperous civilian life.

KCAV provides free, high-quality legal representation to low-income veterans and partners with other organizations to ensure comprehensive solutions to the problems veterans face.

Legal Representation

We can help with many areas of law including

- Veterans' benefits claims
- Bankruptcies
- Evictions and foreclosures
- Consumer issues
- Criminal record expungements
- Wills and trusts
- Family and domestic issues
- Employment issues
- Government benefits

Keeping Veterans Informed

As a veteran, you are entitled to a broad range of benefits and services. Legal Aid can help you access the information you need for

- Veteran disability benefit eligibility
- Healthcare eligibility
- Education benefits
- Housing assistance
- Employment assistance
- Self-help legal services

Providing a Link to veterans' services

In collaboration with several veterans' organizations, we can help you connect with available veterans' services, including

- Homeless shelters
- Substance abuse treatment
- Medical and mental health care
- Employment assistance

KCAV also provides specialized assistance for veterans through state and national resources and helps you access legal information and self-help forms. Resources are also available at www.kyjustice.org.

Our services are always free. Veterans seeking help can call 502-584-1254 or visit www.laslou.org for our online intake form.
