

safety and health

The Legal Aid Society offers you the legal advice and protection you need to feel stable and secure. We want to help you lead a healthier, happier life.

nursing home ombudsman program

Legal Aid works to make sure the 1,600 nursing home residents in our community are well-cared for. Our staff

- Investigates and works to resolve grievances reported by nursing home residents and their families
- Organizes resident and family groups
- Educates nursing home staff on how to recognize exploitation

homeless outreach program

With funding from Metro United Way, we help the homeless secure housing and find stability. We work with you to

- Remove barriers to employment
- Access the government assistance you deserve
- Secure permanent housing
- Obtain appropriate health care community development program

Legal Aid provides assistance to organizations and neighborhood associations that aim to improve our communities. In addition to helping organizations get started by drafting their bylaws and articles of incorporation, we provide legal advice to nonprofits who work to keep utilities affordable and available to everyone.

Our services are always free.
